

Cascade Clamps

Cascade Clamps - Established in Portland, Oregon in the year 1943, the Cascade Manufacturing Company began as a small machine shop employing just four individuals. Overall sales for that year totaled 60 thousand dollars. The very first recorded sales revenues involved the machining and assembly of stainless-steel valves, pipe fittings and different parts. During five years of operation, the business had expanded to forty workers and their annual sales volume had risen to 330 thousand dollars. Nowadays, Cascade is amongst the top global producers in the material handling business.

Manufacture and design of the company's initial hydraulic cylinder paved the way in Cascade's aggressive quest of new business opportunities. Over the past sixty years, the material handling trade has grown into a very sophisticated field and Cascade has proudly performed a part on this development. Cascade presently continues to grow as the best supplier of lift truck attachments and different related items. The business feels confident in their capability in order to continue to lead the way in the business by understanding customer's requirements in the future and remaining competitive in the world market.

In the 1950's, Cascade started designing, fabricating and selling hydraulic attachments. Manufacturing was finished in the year 1956 on a brand new facility in order to house all of the office and plant operations in Portland, Oregon at the company's current center of operations. Subsequent to 15 years of business, total staff reached a hundred and eighty workers and sales had reached almost 2.3 million dollars.

1959 in Springfield, Ohio the next manufacturing facility was built. nineteen sixty marked Cascade's initial move into the global world of the material handling industry when the business established interest in Australia, the Netherlands and England.

The company altered its name to Cascade Corporation in 1964. In the year 1965, Cascade went public with a preliminary offering of 200,000 shares of common stock. The company has expanded its production plants throughout the U.S. with places in Springfield, Ohio, Warner Robins, Georgia, Portland, Oregon. Cascade merchandise are made worldwide due to lots of subsidiary operations. In the year 1944, a brand new facility was accomplished in Almere, the Netherlands which is Cascade's European command center. This plant is designed to be the essential customer service centre.

Continuing to develop, Cascade expanded their product offering further in the year 1996 and 1997 with the dramatic acquisition of 5 corporations, along with the worldwide best in forks, the Kenhar Corporation.